- Review, draft, and negotiate a variety of contracts, including vendor agreements, service contracts, and partnerships with healthcare providers, pharmaceutical companies, and payers.
- Provide guidance on regulatory questions related to healthcare, pharmacy operations, HIPAA, DEA, FDA regulations, and other applicable laws in the pharma and health insurance industries.
- Handle general corporate legal work, such as corporate governance, risk management, policy development, and advising on business transactions.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams, including compliance, operations, and executive leadership, to ensure legal alignment with business objectives.
- Conduct legal research and analysis on emerging issues in healthcare, specialty pharmacy, and pharmacy benefit management (PBM).

- Assist outside counsel in managing litigation, disputes, and internal investigations as needed.
- Support the development and implementation of compliance programs to mitigate legal risks.
- Serve as legal partner for strategic initiatives such as M&A, value-based care models, or new product launches

Qualifications

- Juris Doctor (JD) degree from an accredited law school.
- Active license to practice law in at least one U.S. state; admission to the Texas bar is preferred but not required.
- 5+ years of relevant legal experience in healthcare, pharmaceuticals, or health insurance (e.g., experience at companies like Aetna or Humana, in-house or law firm background both welcome)
- Experience in a national specialty pharmacy or Pharmacy Benefit Manager (PBM) is a strong plus.
- Prefer, not required, strong knowledge of pharmacy, DEA & healthcare regulations.
- Excellent analytical, communication, and negotiation skills.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- High ethical standards and a commitment to integrity.
